GRACE CHRISTIAN HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE® ALASKA BOYS BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (March 8, 2018) — In its 33rd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Tobin Karlberg of Grace Christian High School as its 2017-18 Gatorade Alaska Boys Basketball Player of the Year. Karlberg is the first Gatorade Alaska Boys Basketball Player of the Year to be chosen from Grace Christian High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Karlberg as Alaska's best high school boys basketball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Basketball Player of the Year award to be announced in March, Karlberg joins an elite alumni association of past state boys basketball award winners, including Karl-Anthony Towns (2012-13 & 2013-14, St. Joseph HS, N.J.), Dwight Howard (2003-04, SW Atlanta Christian Academy, Ga.), Chris Bosh (2001-02, Lincoln HS, Texas), Paul Pierce (1994-95, Inglewood HS, Calif.), Chauncey Billups (1993-94 & 1994-95, George Washington HS, Colo.) and Jason Kidd (1991-92, St. Joseph Notre Dame HS, Calif.).

The 6-foot, 185-pound senior guard had led the Grizzlies to an 18-7 record at the time of his selection. Karlberg averaged 20.1 points, 4.3 steals and 3.9 assists through 25 games. The reigning Class 3A Player of the Year, he is a two-time First Team All-State honoree and was a member of the All-State Tournament team.

A devoted member of his church community, Karlberg has volunteered locally on behalf of youth basketball programs and has participated in mission trips to remote Alaskan villages. "Tobin Karlberg is one of those rare athletes who is a true coach on the floor," said Archie Young, head coach at Mt. Edgecumbe High. "He's one of the best I've seen at making his teammates better and he never shows frustration. I think he's one of the best leaders Alaska has had in some time."

Karlberg has maintained a 3.30 GPA in the classroom. He has signed a National Letter of Intent to play basketball on scholarship at the University of Alaska-Anchorage this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Karlberg joins recent Gatorade Alaska Boys Basketball Players of the Year Austin White (2016-17, Ninilchik High School), Kamaka Hepa (2015-16 & 2014-15, Barrow High School), Scooter Bynum (2013-14, Monroe Catholic High School), Adam Klie (2012-13, Service High School), Connor Devine (2011-12, Wasilla High School), Devon Bookert (2010-11, West Anchorage High School), Kyle Fossman (2009-10, Haines High School), Ryan Hanley (2008-09, Dimond High School), Kevin Winford (2007-08, Bartlett High School), and Jesse Bean (2006-07, Wasilla High School) among the state's list of former award winners.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Tobin will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants - one for each sport - will be announced throughout the year.
