EDMOND NORTH HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE OKLAHOMA BOYS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 6, 2018) — In its 33rd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Daryl Dike of Edmond North High School as its 2017-18 Gatorade Oklahoma Boys Soccer Player of the Year. Dike is the first Gatorade Oklahoma Boys Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Edmond North High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Dike as Oklahoma's best high school boys soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in June, Dike joins an elite alumni association of past state soccer award-winners, including Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook HS, Mich.), Steve Cherundolo (1996-97, Mt. Carmel HS, Calif.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02, 2002-03, East Brunswick HS, N.J.), Matt Besler (2004-04, Blue Valley West HS, Kans.), Jack Harrison (2013-14, Berkshire HS, Mass.), Mallory Pugh (2014-15, Mountain Vista HS, Colo.).

The 6-foot-1, 210-pound senior forward scored 19 goals and passed for 5 assists this past season, leading the Huskies (11-7) to the Class 6A semifinals. The two-time Tulsa World All-City Player of the Year, Dike broke the Class 6A state record for career goals scored, graduating with 71 goals, and was named the Jim Thorpe Male Player of the Year in soccer.

A devoted member of his church youth group, Dike has volunteered locally on behalf of the U.S. Youth Soccer TOPSoccer program serving young athletes with disabilities. "Daryl Dike is the best high school soccer player I've ever seen play the game," said Eric Jenkins, head coach at Choctaw High. "His athleticism is unparalleled at this level. He can beat you all by himself and he's fearless in his approach."

Dike has maintained a weighted 4.24 GPA in the classroom. He has signed a National Letter of Intent to play soccer on scholarship at the University of Virginia this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Dike joins recent Gatorade Oklahoma Boys Soccer Players of the Year Dante Brigida (2016-17, Edmond Santa Fe High School), Garrett McLaughlin (2015-16 & 2014-15, Heritage Hall), Mauro Cichero (2013-14 & 2012-13, Norman North High School), Cristian Mata (2011-12, Union High School), Will Smith (2010-11, Norman North High School), Omar Mata (2009-10, Union High School), Jack Coleman (2008-09, Norman North High School), Thomas Shannon (2007-08, Broken Arrow Senior High School), and Jonathan Gann (2006-07, Union High School) among the state's list of former award winners.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Dike will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants - one for each sport - will be announced throughout the year.
