WHITEFISH BAY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE WISCONSIN BOYS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 6, 2018) — In its 33rd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Matthew Comiskey of Whitefish Bay High School as its 2017-18 Gatorade Wisconsin Boys Soccer Player of the Year. Comiskey is the first Gatorade Wisconsin Boys Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Whitefish Bay High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Comiskey as Wisconsin's best high school boys soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in June, Comiskey joins an elite alumni association of past state soccer award-winners, including Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook HS, Mich.), Steve Cherundolo (1996-97, Mt. Carmel HS, Calif.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02, 2002-03, East Brunswick HS, N.J.), Matt Besler (2004-04, Blue Valley West HS, Kans.), Jack Harrison (2013-14, Berkshire HS, Mass.), Mallory Pugh (2014-15, Mountain Vista HS, Colo.).

The 6-foot, 150-pound senior forward scored 46 goals and passed for 30 assists this past season, leading the Blue Dukes (25-0) to the Division 2 state championship. Named state Player of the Year by the Wisconsin Soccer Coaches Association, Comiskey was also selected as National Player of the Year by United Soccer Coaches.

A tutor for younger students, Comiskey has volunteered locally on behalf of Silver Spring Neighborhood Center helping the residents of Westlawn, Wisconsin's largest public housing development, become self-sufficient, contributing members of society. "Matt Comiskey was the engine that drove a really special Whitefish Bay team," said Mark Schill, head coach at Nicolet High. "He scored, he was a playmaker and he really just made the team around him better."

Comiskey has maintained a 3.76 GPA in the classroom. He has signed a National Letter of Intent to play soccer on scholarship at the University of Wisconsin this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Comiskey joins recent Gatorade Wisconsin Boys Soccer Players of the Year Zak Wegner (2016-17, Arrowhead High School), Alec Philippe (2015-16, Marquette University High School), Peter Raymonds (2014-15, Brookfield East High School), Adam Pohlman (2013-14, Neenah High School), Andrija Novakovich (2012-13, Muskego High School), Patrick Hodan (2011-12, Marquette University High School), Alex Megna (2010-11, Marquette University High School), David Caban (2009-10, Tremper High School), Robbie Boyd (2008-09, Marquette University High School), Stuart Grable (2007-08, Neenah High School), and Eric Meyer (2006-07, James Madison Memorial High School) among the state's list of former award winners.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Comiskey will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants - one for each sport - will be announced throughout the year.
