

BETHANY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE OKLAHOMA GIRLS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 18, 2026) — In its 41st year celebrating the nation’s best high school athletes, Gatorade today announced Camryn Regier of Bethany High School is the 2025-26 Gatorade Oklahoma Girls Soccer Player of the Year.

Gatorade Player of the Year is the top honor in high school sports, celebrating the nation’s best high school athletes for their excellence in sport, academics and community. The award recognizes Regier as Oklahoma’s best high school girls soccer player, and she joins an elite legacy that spans professional athletes and coaches to CEOs, such as Mallory Swanson (2014-15, Mountain Vista High School, Colorado), Riley Jackson (2021-22, Blessed Trinity Catholic High School, Georgia) and Addison Halpern (2024-25, Rutgers Preparatory School, New Jersey).

The 6-foot-1 junior forward and midfielder led the Bronchos to a 16-3 record and a second straight Class 4A state championship this past season. Regier scored 52 goals and passed for 10 assists, recording a hat trick in Bethany’s 4-2 win over Oklahoma Christian High School in the state final. She scored four or more goals nine times, including three five-goal games and one game with six. A 2025 Oklahoman All-City First Team selection, she concluded her junior year with 113 goals and 44 assists in her prep career.

A Class 4A First Team All-State basketball player for Bethany High School, Regier has volunteered locally with Kanukuk Kamps for kids. She has also donated her time with the Bethany High School student council and will be that body’s president in the coming school year. “Camryn was unstoppable this season,” said Brayden Carter, head coach of Harrah High School. “She is tall and strong with good pace and technical ability, plus a good soccer IQ. She can easily take over a game.”

Regier has maintained a weighted 4.24 GPA in the classroom. She has made a verbal commitment to play soccer on scholarship at Creighton University beginning in the fall of 2027.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one state winner from each of the 50 states and Washington D.C., in 12 different sports: football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, baseball, softball, boys and girls soccer, and boys and girls track & field. In total, 610 high school athletes are honored each year. From the pool of state winners, one national winner is selected in each of the 12 sports. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which leverages experts including coaches, scouts, media and others as sources to help evaluate and determine the winners in each sport.

As part of Gatorade’s commitment to breaking down barriers in sport, every Player of the Year also receives a grant to donate to a social impact partner. To date, the Gatorade Player of the Year program has provided more than $6.4 million in grants to winners across more than 2,200 organizations.
