

GREEN RIVER HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE WYOMING GIRLS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 18, 2026) — In its 41st year celebrating the nation’s best high school athletes, Gatorade today announced Isabel Vasco of Green River High School is the 2025-26 Gatorade Wyoming Girls Soccer Player of the Year.

Gatorade Player of the Year is the top honor in high school sports, celebrating the nation’s best high school athletes for their excellence in sport, academics and community. The award recognizes Vasco as Wyoming’s best high school girls soccer player, and she joins an elite legacy that spans professional athletes and coaches to CEOs, such as Mallory Swanson (2014-15, Mountain Vista High School, Colorado), Riley Jackson (2021-22, Blessed Trinity Catholic High School, Georgia) and Addison Halpern (2024-25, Rutgers Preparatory School, New Jersey).

The 5-foot-8 senior striker led the Lady Wolves (10-7-3) to the Class 4A tournament quarterfinals this past season, scoring 54 goals and passing for 10 assists. Vasco averaged 3.2 points per game, including scoring 11 goals and passing for 3 assists during the postseason. A three-time First Team All-State honoree, she is also a five-time Region IV Olympic Development Program selection. Vasco concluded her prep career as the leading career scorer in state history with 224 goals, obliterating the previous mark of 106. She is also a two-time 4A West Region Player of the Year in basketball and graduated as that program’s leader in career points and steals.

A devoted member of 4-H, Vasco raises steers as part of that involvement. She has participated in multiple community service initiatives in association with the National Honor Society and she has also donated her time as a youth soccer coach. “What truly distinguishes Isa is her love for the game and her desire to compete,” said Green River High School head coach Matt Robles. “She possesses a rare combination of speed, creativity, technical skill, composure, vision and finishing ability. I don’t expect to coach a player like Isabel ever again.

Vasco has maintained a weighted 4.15 weighted GPA in the classroom. She has signed a written letter of athletic aid to play soccer on scholarship at the University of Wyoming this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one state winner from each of the 50 states and Washington D.C., in 12 different sports: football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, baseball, softball, boys and girls soccer, and boys and girls track & field. In total, 610 high school athletes are honored each year. From the pool of state winners, one national winner is selected in each of the 12 sports. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which leverages experts including coaches, scouts, media and others as sources to help evaluate and determine the winners in each sport.

As part of Gatorade’s commitment to breaking down barriers in sport, every Player of the Year also receives a grant to donate to a social impact partner. To date, the Gatorade Player of the Year program has provided more than $6.4 million in grants to winners across more than 2,200 organizations.

To learn more about the Gatorade Player of the Year program, check out past winners or to nominate student-athletes, visit playeroftheyear.gatorade.com or follow us on social media on Instagram at instagram.com/Gatorade, Facebook at facebook.com/GatoradePOY and X (Twitter) at x.com/Gatorade.

###