SEABURY HALL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE HAWAII GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (January 13, 2011) — In its 26th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with ESPN RISE, today announced Dakota Grossman of Seabury Hall as its 2010-11 Gatorade Hawaii Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year. Grossman is the first Gatorade Hawaii Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year to be chosen from Seabury Hall.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the racecourse, distinguishes Grossman as Hawaii's best high school girls cross country runner. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year award to be announced in January, Grossman joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Ryan Hall (1999-00, 2000-01, Big Bear HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Kevin Garnett (1992-93, Maudlin HS, S.C.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The 5-foot-4 freshman raced to the Hawaii High School Athletic Association individual state championship this past season with a time of 19:25.50, leading the Spartans to fourth place as a team. The 2010 Maui Interscholastic League Runner of the Year, Grossman was also the fastest Hawaii runner at the Foot Locker West Regional championships, capturing 53rd place in 19:53. She also earned second place at the Iolani Invitational, and was the fastest Hawaii competitor with a time of 19:23.

Grossman has maintained a B average in the classroom. A member of her school's student council, she volunteered at the 41st annual Maui Marathon this past September.

"Dakota Grossman's sportsmanship and performance has made her one of the best around," said Jared Welch, head coach of rival Maui High. "She was by far the best runner in Hawaii this season and she is extremely humble."

Grossman will begin her sophomore year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by ESPN RISE and the Gatorade high school sports leadership team, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Grossman joins Gatorade Hawaii Girls Cross Country Runners of the Year Elli Brady (2009-10, Punahou School), Bailey Massenburg (2008-09, King Kekaulike), and Kristin Ali Keith (2007-08, Mililani) as athletes who have won the cross country award since its inception in 2007.
