KELL HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE GEORGIA GIRLS TRACK & FIELD ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 21, 2011) — In its 26th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with ESPN RISE, today announced Kendell Williams of Kell High School as its 2010-11 Gatorade Georgia Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year. Williams is the first Gatorade Georgia Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year to be chosen from Kell High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the track, distinguishes Williams as Georgia's best high school girls track & field athlete. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year award to be announced in June, Williams joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Allyson Felix (2001-02, Los Angeles Baptist, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.), Lolo Jones (1997-98, Roosevelt HS, Ia.) and Bianca Knight (2006-07, Ridgeland HS, Miss.).

The 5-foot-9 sophomore won three individual Class 4A state championships this spring and led the Longhorns to a fourth-place finish as a team. The state's returning Gatorade Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year, Williams captured the 100-meter high hurdles with a time of 13.66 seconds and the 300-meter intermediate hurdles in 42.42, also clearing 5 feet, 10 inches to win the high jump. Her best marks in each of those events ranked among the nation's top 10 performance by prep competitors in 2011 at the time of her selection. Williams also won the heptathlon at this month's New Balance Outdoor Nationals, scoring a national sophomore record 5,169 points.

Williams has maintained a 3.61 GPA in the classroom. She has volunteered locally on behalf of a school group that helps feed the homeless, and she participates in group activities with orphaned children in Cobb County.

"Kendell works hard and the results show," said Kell High Head Coach Andi Jenkins. "As an underclassman she has stepped into a leadership role on the track team. Even the older girls look up to her and follow her example."

Williams will begin her junior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by ESPN RISE and the Gatorade high school sports leadership team, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Williams joins recent Gatorade Georgia Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year Chalonda Goodman (2008-09 & 2007-08, Newnan) among the state's list of former award winners.
