SUMMIT HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE OREGON BOYS CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (January 16, 2014) — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Matthew Maton of Summit High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade Oregon Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year. Maton is the second Gatorade Oregon Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year to be chosen from Summit High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the racecourse, distinguishes Maton as Oregon's best high school boys cross country runner. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year award to be announced in January, Maton joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Ryan Hall (1999-00, 2000-01, Big Bear HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Kevin Garnett (1992-93, Maudlin HS, S.C.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The 6-foot, 135-pound junior raced to the Class 5A individual state championship this past season with a time of 14:59, leading the Storm to the state title as a team. Maton also won the Foot Locker West Regional championships in 15:38.9 and was third at the national Foot Locker Cross Country Championships with a time of 15:19. He added victories at the Nike BorderClash, the George Fox Classic and the Nike Pre-Nationals.

Maton has maintained a B average in the classroom. He has volunteered locally on behalf of youth track clinics and an animal shelter.

"Matthew has a great deal of intestinal fortitude," said Dave Turnbull, track and field head coach at Summit High. "He's very tough, and a fierce competitor. He has the ability to reach down and find more strength when he needs it."

Maton will begin his senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Maton joins Gatorade Oregon Boys Cross Country Runners of the Year Jackson Darland (2012-13, Sheldon High School), Travis Neuman (2011-12, Summit High School), Matthew Melancon (2010-11, Sheldon High School), Drew Jordan (2009-10, North Medford), Elliott Jantzer (2008-09, Phoenix), and Bryce Burgess (2007-08, Franklin) as athletes who have won the cross country award since its inception in 2007.
