ALTA HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE UTAH GIRLS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (February 6, 2014) — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Bizzy Phillips of Alta High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade Utah Girls Soccer Player of the Year. Phillips is the third Gatorade Utah Girls Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Alta High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Phillips as Utah's best high school girls soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in May, Phillips joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook HS, Mich.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02, East Brunswick HS, N.J.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The returning Gatorade Utah Player of the Year, the 5-foot-4 senior midfielder scored 23 goals and passed for 20 assists this past season, leading the Hawks (16-2) to the Class 5A state quarterfinals. The Deseret News' Ms. Soccer winner, Phillips is a three-time First Team All-State honoree and a two-time All-American selection by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. She concluded her prep soccer career with 58 goals and 60 assists.

Phillips has maintained a 4.0 GPA in the classroom. The founder of Alta High's Peer Leadership Team, she has volunteered locally as a peer tutor and with elementary literacy-outreach programs.

"Bizzy has excellent movement off the ball as well as on it," said Simon McFall, head coach of Juan Diego High. "She's a dynamite player in front of goal with a nose to finish."

Phillips has signed a National Letter of Intent to play soccer on an athletic scholarship at Brigham Young University this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Two-time winner Phillips joins Gatorade Utah Girls Soccer Players of the Year Michele Murphy (2011-12, Alta High School), Stephanie Verdoia (2010-11, Brighton High School), Jaiden Thornock (2009-10, Bonneville), Kealia Ohai (2008-09 & 2007-08, Alta High School), and Megan Ohai (2006-07, Alta High School) among the state's list of former award winners.
