LIBERTY HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE NEVADA BOYS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (February 13, 2014) — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Danny Musovski of Liberty High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade Nevada Boys Soccer Player of the Year. Musovski is the first Gatorade Nevada Boys Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Liberty High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Musovski as Nevada's best high school boys soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in May, Musovski joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook HS, Mich.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02, East Brunswick HS, N.J.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The returning Gatorade State Player of the Year, the 5-foot-11, 160-pound senior forward scored a state-record 58 goals and passed for seven assists this past season, leading the Patriots (16-3-2) to the Division I Sunrise Region quarterfinals. A two-time Southeast League Player of the Year, Musovski was a three-time All-Southern Nevada selection. He concluded his prep soccer career with a state-record 139 goals along with 28 assists.

Musovski has maintained a weighted 4.1 GPA in the classroom. The president of the Liberty High Class of 2014, he has volunteered locally at a homeless shelter and as a youth soccer coach and referee.

"Danny Musovski is the real deal," said Vince Hart, head coach of Las Vegas High. "He's up there with the very best this state has ever seen. He has great vision and awareness, great speed and can score with both feet and his head."

Musovski remains undecided upon a collegiate destination.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Two-time winner Musovski joins Gatorade Nevada Boys Soccer Players of the Year Ruben Duran (2011-12, Eldorado High School), Matt Polster (2010-11, Palo Verde High School), Joaquin Rivas, (2009-10, Las Vegas High School), Kevin Rogge (2008-09, Centennial), Steven Avena (2007-08, Bishop Gorman), and Zac Zaher (2006-2007, Bishop Gorman College Preparatory School) among the state's list of former award winners.
