CAESAR RODNEY HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED GATORADE DELAWARE GIRLS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (May 20, 2014) — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Alexis Prillaman of Caesar Rodney High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade Delaware Girls Soccer Player of the Year. Prillaman is the third Gatorade Delaware Girls Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Caesar Rodney High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Prillaman as Delaware's best high school girls soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in May, Prillaman joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook HS, Mich.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02, East Brunswick HS, N.J.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The 5-foot-10 senior forward has led the Riders to a 12-3 record entering the Division I state tournament, scheduled to begin May 20. The state's returning Gatorade Girls Soccer Player of the Year, Prillaman scored 33 goals and passed for 14 assists in the regular season. An All-American selection by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America, she is also a two-time First Team All-State honoree and a two-time Henlopen Conference Player of the Year.

Prillaman has maintained an A average in the classroom. Also a basketball and field hockey standout, she has volunteered locally on behalf of environmental-preservation initiatives, a soup kitchen, the Special Olympics and the U.S. Youth Soccer TOPSoccer program serving young athletes with disabilities.

"She has a good understanding of the game and a motor that never quits," said Keith Short, head coach at Milford High. "Her determination sets her apart from anyone else we've played."

Prillaman has signed a National Letter of Intent to play soccer on scholarship at the University of Richmond this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Two-time winner Prillaman joins Gatorade Delaware Girls Soccer Players of the Year Casey Horney (2011-12, Padua Academy), Caitlin Forte (2010 - 11, Indian River High School), Jazmine Reeves (2009-10 & 2008-09 Caesar Rodney), Morgan Morrow (2007-08, Padua Academy), and Brittny Rhoades (2006-2007, Padua Academy) among the state's list of former award winners.
