DALLAS CENTER-GRIMES HIGH SCHOOL HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED GATORADE® IOWA SOFTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 5, 2014) — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Paige Lowary of Dallas Center-Grimes High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade Iowa Softball Player of the Year. Lowary is the first Gatorade Iowa Softball Player of the Year to be chosen from Dallas Center-Grimes High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Lowary as Iowa's best high school softball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Softball Player of the Year award announced in June, Lowary joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Alicia Hollowell (2000-01, Fairfield HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.), Angela Tincher (2002-03, James River HS, Va.) and Kenzie Fowler (2006-07, Canyon del Oro HS, Ariz.).

The 5-foot-10 senior left-handed pitcher and first baseman led the Mustangs (38-5) to the Class 4A state championship this past season. Lowary posted a 27-2 record with a 1.21 ERA and 244 strikeouts in 191 innings pitched. The state's returning Gatorade Softball Player of the Year, she also batted .424 with five home runs, 24 RBI, a .661 slugging percentage and a .510 on-base percentage.

Lowary has maintained a 3.97 GPA in the classroom. A devoted parishioner in her church community, she has volunteered locally on behalf of Meals from the Heartland, the Dallas County CROP Hunger Walk and as a youth softball coach.

"Paige Lowary is the complete package," said Dallas Center-Grimes head coach Steve Schlafke. "On the mound she has been dominant at the varsity level, starting with her eighth grade season throwing in the mid-60s along with changing speeds and great movement. She has persevered through hard work, dedication and a competitive spirit."

Lowary has signed a National Letter of Intent to play softball on an athletic scholarship at the University of Missouri this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Two-time winner Lowary joins Gatorade Iowa Softball Players of the Year Riley Fisher (2011-12, East High School), Jady Spencer (2010-11, West High School), Jamie Fisher (2009-10, BCLUW), Sammy Snygg (2008-09, 2007-08 & 2006-07, North Polk) among the state's list of former award winners.
