PAUL G. BLAZER HIGH SCHOOL HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED GATORADE® KENTUCKY SOFTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 5, 2014) — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Megan Hensley of Paul G. Blazer High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade Kentucky Softball Player of the Year. Hensley is the first Gatorade Kentucky Softball Player of the Year to be chosen from Paul G. Blazer High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Hensley as Kentucky's best high school softball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Softball Player of the Year award announced in June, Hensley joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Alicia Hollowell (2000-01, Fairfield HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.), Angela Tincher (2002-03, James River HS, Va.) and Kenzie Fowler (2006-07, Canyon del Oro HS, Ariz.).

The 5-foot-8 junior right-handed pitcher has posted a 28-4 record in the circle along with a 0.63 ERA this season, leading the Kittens (31-5) to the first round of the KHSAA State Tournament against McCracken County High, scheduled for June 5. Through 36 games, Hensley has struck out 369 batters and walked 46 in 200.2 innings pitched, firing five no-hitters, including a perfect game. At the plate, the 2013 MaxPreps.com Underclass All-American selection was batting .561 with nine home runs, 44 RBI and a .981 slugging percentage.

Hensley has maintained a weighted 4.07 GPA in the classroom. A member of the Mu Alpha Theta math honor society, she has volunteered locally with the Salvation Army, as a youth softball coach and with multiple community-service initiatives through her church youth group.

"Megan Hensley is without a doubt the best pitcher in the history of the 16th Region," said Lauren Ellis, head coach of Fairview High. "What makes her so dangerous in the circle is that she pairs a hard ball with incredible movement. She keeps hitters guessing at all times."

Hensley has made a verbal commitment to play softball on an athletic scholarship at the University of Louisville in the fall of 2015.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Hensley joins recent Gatorade Kentucky Softball Players of the Year Jessica Adell (2012-13, Ballard High School), Allison Foster (2011-12, Christian Academy of Louisville), Griffin Joiner (2010-11, Christian County High School), Emily Gaines (2009-10, South Laurel), Megan Taylor (2008-09, North Laurel), and Kirsten Allen (2007-08 & 2006-07, Ryle) among the state's list of former award winners.
