NORTH HARDIN HIGH SCHOOL HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED GATORADE KENTUCKY GIRLS TRACK & FIELD ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 19, 2014) — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Kianna Gray of North Hardin High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade Kentucky Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year. Gray is the first Gatorade Kentucky Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year to be chosen from North Hardin High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the track, distinguishes Gray as Kentucky's best high school girls track & field athlete. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year award to be announced in June, Gray joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Allyson Felix (2001-02, Los Angeles Baptist, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.), Lolo Jones (1997-98, Roosevelt HS, Ia.) and Bianca Knight (2006-07, Ridgeland HS, Miss.).

The returning Gatorade State Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year, the 5-foot-10 junior won four individual state championships at the Class 3A state meet this spring and led the Trojans to a runner-up finish as a team. Gray won the 100-meter dash in a time of 11.81 seconds, the 200-meter dash in 24.09, the 400-meter dash in 54.60 and the 100-meter hurdles in 14.29. The state record-holder in the 100, 200 and 400, she was ranked in the top 60 in the nation among prep competitors this season in all three events at the time of her selection.

Gray has maintained a B average in the classroom. She has volunteered locally as an event-organizer and official at elementary school track meets.

"From the times she ran, Kianna is obviously an outstanding athlete," said Kathy Broadnax, head coach of Bryan Station High. "I think the most amazing thing about her is her ability to run such fast times back to back. She runs the 100 hurdles and immediately runs very fast times in the 100. That is impressive."

Gray will begin her senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Two-time winner Gray joins Gatorade Kentucky Girls Track & Field Athletes of the Year Alisha Adair (2011-12, Western Hills High School), Emma Brink (2010 - 11, 2009-10 & 2008-09, Sacred Heart Academy), Lutisha Bowen (2007-08, Ballard), and Mary Grace Pellegrini (2006-2007, DuPont Manual) among the state's list of former award winners.
