OTTAWA HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE KANSAS BOYS TRACK & FIELD ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 20, 2014) — In its 29th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Kord Ferguson of Ottawa High School as its 2013-14 Gatorade Kansas Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year. Ferguson is the first Gatorade Kansas Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year to be chosen from Ottawa High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the track, distinguishes Ferguson as Kansas's best high school boys track & field athlete. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year award to be announced in June, Ferguson joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Ryan Hall (1999-01, Big Bear HS, Calif.), Meb Keflezighi (1993-94, San Diego HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.) and Lolo Jones (1997-98, Roosevelt HS, Ia.).

The 6-foot-6, 230-pound senior won the discus with a throw of 206 feet, 2 inches and the shot put with a distance of 64-7.5 at the Class 4A state championship meet this spring. The state's returning Gatorade Boys Track and Field Athlete of the Year, Ferguson also swept both events at the Kansas Relays and the Great Southwest Classic, and his season-best efforts of 67-10 in the shot put and 210-3 in the discus both ranked as the nation's No. 2 performances among prep competitors in 2014 at the time of his selection.

Ferguson has maintained a 3.27 GPA in the classroom. Also a football standout, he has volunteered locally assisting the elderly and coaching youth athletes.

"Kord's accomplishments are the result of his hard work and dedication to the sport," said Ottawa head coach Mark Laws. "He has become a positive leader for all people who have had the opportunity to know him."

Ferguson has signed a National Letter of Intent to compete in track and field on scholarship at Wichita State University this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Two-time winner Ferguson joins Gatorade Kansas Boys Track & Field Athletes of the Year Jonny Giess (2011-12, Blue Valley Northwest High School), Macauley Garton (2010 - 11, Mill Valley High School), Johannes Swanepoel (2009-10, Shawnee Mission South), Adonis Saunders (2008-09, Olathe North), John Talbert (2007-08, Kansas City East Christian Academy), and Iain Trimble (2006-2007, Shawnee Heights) among the state's list of former award winners.
