FIRST BAPTIST CHRISTIAN SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED GATORADE LOUISIANA GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (January 8, 2015) — In its 30th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Gabrielle Jennings of First Baptist Christian School as its 2014-15 Gatorade Louisiana Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year. Jennings is the first Gatorade Louisiana Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year to be chosen from First Baptist Christian School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the racecourse, distinguishes Jennings as Louisiana's best high school girls cross country runner. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year award to be announced in January, Jennings joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Ryan Hall (1999-00, 2000-01, Big Bear HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The 5-foot-6 junior won her seventh consecutive Class C individual state championship with a time of 19:14.9 this past season. The state's two-time returning Gatorade Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year, Jennings' times of 17:34.22 at the Saint Thomas Aquinas Rollette Invitational and 18:15.77 at the Jesse Owens Classic, respectively, ranked as the fastest 3-mile and 5K clocking among Louisiana prep competitors this past fall.

Also an accomplished artist, dancer and swimmer, Jennings has maintained a 3.93 GPA in the classroom and has served in her school's student government. In addition to donating her time as a youth running instructor, she has volunteered on behalf of her church community, the First Baptist Christian School, the National Beta Club and World Vision, a Christian humanitarian organization.

"She is practically unrivaled among all classifications in the state in terms of ability and accomplishment," said Scotti Jowers, head coach of rival Claiborne Christian School. "I had the opportunity to visit with her and her father/coach earlier in the season. She is very humble and gracious."

Jennings will begin her senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Three time winner Jennings joins Gatorade Louisiana Girls Cross Country Runners of the Year Anna Katherine Devitt (2011-12, Christian Life Academy), Kaitlin Flattmann (2010-11, Benton High School), and Malia Cali (2009-10, 2008-09 & 2007-08, St. Thomas Aquinas), as athletes who have won the cross country award since its inception in 2007.
