HERRIMAN HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE UTAH GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (January 8, 2015) — In its 30th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Lucy Biles of Herriman High School as its 2014-15 Gatorade Utah Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year. Biles is the first Gatorade Utah Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year to be chosen from Herriman High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the racecourse, distinguishes Biles as Utah's best high school girls cross country runner. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year award to be announced in January, Biles joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Ryan Hall (1999-00, 2000-01, Big Bear HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The 5-foot-6 senior raced to the Class 5A individual state championship this past season with a meet-record time of 17:41, capturing her third consecutive state crown. The state's two-time returning Gatorade Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year, Biles took fifth at the Nike Cross Nationals Southwest Regional championships and finished seventh at the NXN Final, clocking another 17:41 to earn All-American honors. She also won the Park City Invitational, the Herriman Invitational and the Region 4 championship in 2014, and was runner-up at the Bob Firman Invitational.

Biles has maintained a 3.48 GPA in the classroom. A devoted member of her church youth group, Biles has volunteered locally on behalf of a school anti-bullying campaign.

"Three state championships in a row is a pretty rare feat," said Herriman head coach James Barnes. "Lucy has great talent and ability, but she also listens very well and she's probably the hardest working athlete that I've ever had."

Biles has signed a National Letter of Intent to compete in cross country and track and field on scholarship at the University of North Carolina this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Three-time winner Biles joins Gatorade Utah Girls Cross Country Runners of the Year Kelsey Braithwaite (2011-12, Box Elder High School), Shea Martinez (2010-11, Davis High School), Gillian Gorelik (2009-10, Park City), Danielle Menlove (2008-09, Jordan), and Hailey Knetties (2007-08, Judge Memorial Catholic) as athletes who have won the cross country award since its inception in 2007.
