HAR-BER HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE ARKANSAS BOYS CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (January 15, 2015) — In its 30th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced T.J. Sugg of Har-Ber High School as its 2014-15 Gatorade Arkansas Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year. Sugg is the first Gatorade Arkansas Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year to be chosen from Har-Ber High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the racecourse, distinguishes Sugg as Arkansas's best high school boys cross country runner. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year award to be announced in January, Sugg joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Ryan Hall (1999-00, 2000-01, Big Bear HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Kevin Garnett (1992-93, Maudlin HS, S.C.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The 6-foot-1, 145-pound junior raced to the Class 7A individual state title this past season with a time of 15:17.8, leading the Wildcats to a third-place finish as a team. Also the 2014 All-NWA Media Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year, Sugg was the fastest Arkansas competitor at the Foot Locker South Regional championships, crossing the line in 23rd with a time of 15:27. He also broke the tape at the Class 7A West regional meet in 15:32.7.

Sugg has maintained a 3.6 GPA in the classroom. An Eagle Scout with the Boy Scouts of America and a member of the National Honor Society, he has volunteered locally on behalf of Family Legacy Missions as well as the Hooked on Fishing-Not on Drugs youth-education program in association with the Future Fisherman Foundation.

"It's fun to watch T.J. Sugg run," said Har-Ber head coach Joe Crommett. "He is a quality young man who has helped take our team to a much higher level. The way he treats other runners makes them enjoy running more and makes our team better."

Sugg will begin his senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Sugg joins Gatorade Arkansas Boys Cross Country Runners of the Year Jacob Shiohira (2013-14 & 2012-13, Bentonville High School), Will Aenchbacher (2011-12, Bentonville High School), Christian Heymsfield (2010-11, Elkins High School), Christopher Marchman (2009-10, Sheridan), Cameron Efurd (2008-09, Rogers), and Aaron Hamilton (2007-08, Rogers) as athletes who have won the cross country award since its inception in 2007.
