URSULINE ACADEMY STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE® DELAWARE GIRLS BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (March 12, 2015) — In its 30th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Adrianna Hahn of Ursuline Academy as its 2014-15 Gatorade Delaware Girls Basketball Player of the Year. Hahn is the fifth Gatorade Delaware Girls Basketball Player of the Year to be chosen from Ursuline Academy.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the court, distinguishes Hahn as Delaware's best high school girls basketball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Basketball Player of the Year award announced in March, Hahn joins an elite alumni association of past state girls basketball award-winners, including Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Diana Taurasi (1998-99 & 1999-00, Don Antonio Lugo HS, Calif.), Maya Moore (2005-06 Collins Hill HS, Ga.), Rashanda McCants (2004-05, Asheville HS, N.C.), Shyra Ely (1999-00, Ben Davis HS, Ind.) and Lisa Leslie (1988-89, Morningside HS, Calif.).

The 5-foot-7 senior point guard had led the Raiders to a 21-1 record, the No. 14 ranking nationally in the USA TODAY's Super 25 and a berth in the semifinals of the state tournament at the time of her selection. The state's two-time returning Gatorade Girls Basketball Player of the Year, Hahn averaged 19.1 points, 3.2 rebounds and 2.1 steals per contest through 22 games. A three-time First Team All-state honoree and a member of the USA TODAY's All-USA Delaware First Team, she was named state player of the year by the Delaware Sportswriters and Broadcasters Association as both a sophomore and junior.

Hahn has maintained a 3.40 GPA in the classroom. She has volunteered locally on behalf of a nursing home and youth basketball camps.

"Hahn can flat out shoot a basketball, even from NBA range," said Dan Cooney, head coach at St. Elizabeth High. "She's very quick off the dribble and her court awareness is phenomenal."

Hahn has signed a National Letter of Intent to play basketball on scholarship at Villanova University this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Three-time winner Hahn joins Gatorade Delaware Girls Basketball Players of the Year Anjaleace White (2011-12, Sanford School), Betnijah Laney (2010-11 & 2009-10, Smyrna High School), Dara Taylor (2008-09, Caravel Academy), Elena Delle Donne (2007-08, 2005-06 & 2004-05, Ursuline Academy), and Khadijah Rushdan (2006-07, St. Elizabeth) among the state's list of former award winners.
