MUSKOGEE HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE® OKLAHOMA GIRLS BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (March 12, 2015) — In its 30th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Aaliyah Wilson of Muskogee High School as its 2014-15 Gatorade Oklahoma Girls Basketball Player of the Year. Wilson is the first Gatorade Oklahoma Girls Basketball Player of the Year to be chosen from Muskogee High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the court, distinguishes Wilson as Oklahoma's best high school girls basketball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Basketball Player of the Year award announced in March, Wilson joins an elite alumni association of past state girls basketball award-winners, including Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Diana Taurasi (1998-99 & 1999-00, Don Antonio Lugo HS, Calif.), Maya Moore (2005-06 Collins Hill HS, Ga.), Rashanda McCants (2004-05, Asheville HS, N.C.), Shyra Ely (1999-00, Ben Davis HS, Ind.) and Lisa Leslie (1988-89, Morningside HS, Calif.).

The 5-foot-11 junior shooting guard has led the Roughers to a 23-3 record and a berth in the Class 6A state tournament, scheduled to begin March 12. Wilson averaged 18.9 points and 8.9 rebounds per game while shooting 57.2 percent from inside the arc through 26 games. A 2014 First Team All-State selection, she also posted regular-season averages of 3.1 steals, 2.6 assists and 2.2 blocks per game.

Wilson has maintained a 3.61 GPA in the classroom. She has volunteered locally on behalf of the Special Olympics, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and 2 Much 2 Lose, which helps raise awareness about the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse.

"Aaliyah Wilson is without a doubt the best player in our conference and in all of Class 6A," said Mandy Nightengale, head coach at Jenks High. "She can play every position and she is very athletic and strong. She also acts as Muskogee's leader when they need to score or in situations where they need to calm her down and stop another team's run. In every game I've watched, she has always held herself to high standards and her actions show true sportsmanship."

Wilson will begin her senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Wilson joins recent Gatorade Oklahoma Girls Basketball Players of the Year Chelsea Dungee (2013-14, Preston High School), Lakota Beatty (2012-13, Anadarko High School), Courtney Walker (2011-12, Edmond Santa Fe High School), Ashley Clark (2010-11, Midwest City High School), Richa Jackson (2009-10, Midwest City), Kevi Luper (2008-09, Adair), Alyssia Brewer (2007-08, Sapulpa), and Angel Goodrich (2006-07, Sequoyah) among the state's list of former award winners.
