WAUKESHA WEST HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED GATORADE WISCONSIN GIRLS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (May 19, 2015) — In its 30th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Dani Rhodes of Waukesha West High School as its 2014-15 Gatorade Wisconsin Girls Soccer Player of the Year. Rhodes is the first Gatorade Wisconsin Girls Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Waukesha West High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Rhodes as Wisconsin's best high school girls soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in May, Rhodes joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook HS, Mich.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02, East Brunswick HS, N.J.) and Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.).

The 5-foot-4 junior forward had led the Wolverines to a 13-0-2 record at the time of her selection. Rhodes scored 37 goals and passed for 10 assists through 15 games. The school record-holder for goals in a game, season and career, she was a First Team All-Conference and All-State Best of the Rest honoree as a sophomore.

Rhodes has maintained a 3.60 GPA in the classroom. Also a basketball standout, she has volunteered locally on behalf of youth soccer and basketball programs.

"Dani Rhodes is a really impressive player," said Scott Stein, head coach at Menomonee Falls High. "She can use her athleticism and speed to get by most people, but she's also a very smart, very efficient player. You have to know where she is all the time."

Rhodes will begin her senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Rhodes joins recent Gatorade Wisconsin Girls Soccer Players of the Year Emily Cervantes (2013-14, Catholic Memorial High School), Josee Stiever (2012-13 & 2011-12, Cedarburg High School), Morgan LaPlant (2010-11, La Follette High School), Alex Melin (2009-10, Verona Area High School), Taylor Madigan (2008-09, Waunakee High School), Laurel Ragalie (2007-08, Bradford High School), and Jennifer Baumann (2006-07, Catholic Memorial) among the state's list of former award winners.
