FRENCHTOWN HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE® MONTANA SOFTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 4, 2015) — In its 30th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Morgan Ray of Frenchtown High School as its 2014-15 Gatorade Montana Softball Player of the Year. Ray is the first Gatorade Montana Softball Player of the Year to be chosen from Frenchtown High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Ray as Montana's best high school softball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Softball Player of the Year award announced in June, Ray joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Alicia Hollowell (2000-01, Fairfield HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.), Angela Tincher (2002-03, James River HS, Va.) and Kenzie Fowler (2006-07, Canyon del Oro HS, Ariz.).

The two-time returning Gatorade State Player of the Year, the 5-foot-10 senior right-handed pitcher posted a 19-2 record along with a 0.32 ERA in the circle this past season, leading the Broncs (24-2) to a third straight Class A state title. Ray struck out 248 batters in 130 innings pitched, allowing just 55 hits and 22 walks. At the plate, the three-time Class A First Team All-State selection batted .553 with seven home runs, 33 RBI and a .953 slugging percentage.

Ray has maintained a 4.0 GPA in the classroom. A member of the Frenchtown High student council, she has volunteered locally at a food bank and with Mountain Home Montana, a program that provides housing to young mothers and their children.

"Morgan is the best that we've faced as far as consistency, great control, good speed and she throws all the pitches," said Larry Smith, head coach of Polson High. "Her batting skills, she's a tough out. She can hit the ball anywhere in the zone."

Ray has signed a National Letter of Intent to play softball on an athletic scholarship at The Ohio State University beginning this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Three-time winner Ray joins Gatorade Montana Softball Players of the Year Heidi Riley (2011-12, Skyview High School), Jaimee Paffhausen (2010-11, Butte High School), Jessyka MacDonald (2009-10, Billings West High School), DJ Johnson (2008-09, Hellgate High School), Maghan Yurek (2007-08, C.M. Russell High School), and Bobbie Lee (2006-07, C.M. Russell High School) among the state's list of former award winners.
