The 5-foot-5 junior distance runner won the 800-meter run with a time of 2:11.09, the 1500-meter run in 4:27.76 and set a state record in the 3000-meter run in 9:34.55, leading the Lions to a second-place finish as a team at the Class 4A state meet this spring. Also the state's 2012-13 Gatorade Girls Track & Field Athlete of the Year, Jenks was also a triple-event winner at the Drake Relays, winning the 800 in 2:09.64, the 1500 in 4:31.09 and the 3000 in 9:33.81, the last of which ranked as the nation's No. 2 performance among prep competitors in 2015.

Jenks has maintained a 4.0 GPA in the classroom. A member of the National Honor Society, she is a second-degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do and has volunteered locally on behalf of Habitat for Humanity.

"Stephanie Jenks's persistent training and determination to succeed at the highest level has resulted in her being amongst the best in the history of Iowa high school track & field," said Linn-Mar High head coach Nathan Hopp. "She continues to push the envelope and work towards higher accomplishments and achievements for herself every time she gets on the track."

The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.
