GRAND BLANC HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT NAMED
GATORADE MICHIGAN BOYS TRACK & FIELD ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 19, 2015) — In its 30th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, in collaboration with USA TODAY High School Sports, today announced Grant Fisher of Grand Blanc High School as its 2014-15 Gatorade Michigan Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year. Fisher is the second Gatorade Michigan Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year to be chosen from Grand Blanc High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the track, distinguishes Fisher as Michigan's best high school boys track & field athlete. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year award to be announced in June, Fisher joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Ryan Hall (1999-01, Big Bear HS, Calif.), Meb Keflezighi (1993-94, San Diego HS, Calif.), Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo HS, Mich.), Candace Parker (2001-02, Naperville Central HS, Ill.), Mark Sanchez (2004-05, Mission Viejo HS, Calif.) and Lolo Jones (1997-98, Roosevelt HS, Ia.).

The 5-foot-10, 135-pound senior won the 1600-meter run with a state-record time of 4:00.28 and captured the 3200 in 8:53.41 at the Division 1 state championship meet this spring. The state's returning Gatorade Boys Track and Field Athlete of the Year and the two-time Gatorade National Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year, Fisher became the seventh U.S. high school runner to break the four-minute mile, running a time of 3:59.38 at the Nike Festival of Miles, matching the third-fastest time in U.S. prep history. He also defended his title at this month's Adidas Dream Mile, winning in 4:01.73.

Fisher has maintained a weighted 4.21 GPA in the classroom. A peer tutor in his school, he has volunteered locally on behalf of a winter coat drive and youth sports programs in addition to donating his time as part of an effort to renovate the Grand Blanc High athletics concession stand.

"It was a big weight off his back to finally break the four-minute mile," said Grand Blanc coach Ed Stanbury. "He's a special runner who has accomplished so much. We're never going to see another kid like him ... and I don't think he's reached his limits yet."

Fisher has signed a National Letter of Intent to compete in track and field and cross country on scholarship at Stanford University this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade high school sports leadership team in partnership with USA TODAY High School Sports, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Two-time winner Fisher joins Gatorade Michigan Boys Track & Field Athletes of the Year Cullen Prena (2012-13, Walled Lake Central High School), Garret Zuk (2011-12, Lakeland High School), Dartis Willis (2010-11, Detroit Country Day School), Omar Kaddurah (2009-10, Grand Blanc), Michael Atchoo (2008-09, Troy), Tommy Brinn (2007-08, Otsego), and Josh Hembrough (2006-07, Forest Hills) among the state's list of former award winners.
