SANDIA PREPARATORY SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE NEW MEXICO VOLLEYBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (January 17, 2017) — In its 32nd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Cat Kelly of Sandia Preparatory School as its 2016-17 Gatorade New Mexico Volleyball Player of the Year. Kelly is the first Gatorade New Mexico Volleyball Player of the Year to be chosen from Sandia Preparatory School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Kelly as New Mexico's best high school volleyball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Volleyball Player of the Year award to be announced in January, Kelly joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including USA Volleyball players Kayla Banwarth (2006-07, Wahlert HS, Iowa), Alisha Glass (2005-06, Leland Public HS, Mich.), Jordan Larson (2004-05, Logan View HS, Neb.) and Foluke Akinradewo (2004-05, St. Thomas HS, Fla.).

The 5-foot-8 junior outside hitter led the Sun Devils to a 24-1 record and the Class 4A state championship this past season. Kelly tallied 301 kills, 216 digs, 66 service aces and 24 blocks while posting a kill percentage of .595 and a hitting percentage of .516. A member of the Albuquerque Journal All-Metro First Team, Kelly is a three-time First Team selection in her competitive class. She concluded her junior year with 810 kills and 500 digs in her prep volleyball career.

Kelly has volunteered locally as a peer tutor as well as a youth volleyball and basketball coach. She has also donated her time as part of multiple initiatives via the Helping Hands Community Service Club. "Cat is an incredible athlete and she has been since I first started coaching against when she was an eighth grader," said Jeanne Fairchild, head coach of St. Pius X High. "She is a force to be reckoned with and has absolutely been the dominating force for Sandia Prep."

Kelly has maintained a 3.56 GPA in the classroom. She will begin her senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Kelly joins recent Gatorade New Mexico Volleyball Players of the Year Abby Stomp (2015-16, La Cueva High School), Amanda Carroll (2014-15 & 2013-14, Sandia High School), Julia Warren (2012-13 & 2011-12, La Cueva High School), Nathalie Castellanos (2010-11, Gadsden High School), Halie Harton (2009-10, Goddard High School), Kristin Valencia (2008-09, Moriarty High School) and Kayla Hammond (2007-08, Rio Rancho High School) among the state's list of former award winners.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Kelly will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants - one for each sport - will be announced throughout the year.
