NATICK HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE MASSACHUSETTS GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (January 23, 2017) — In its 32nd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Grace Connolly of Natick High School as its 2016-17 Gatorade Massachusetts Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year. Connolly is the first Gatorade Massachusetts Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year to be chosen from Natick High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the racecourse, distinguishes Connolly as Massachusetts's best high school girls cross country runner. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year award to be announced in January/February, Connolly joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Lukas Verzbicas (2010-11, 2009-10 Carl Sandburg, Orland Park, Ill.), Megan Goethals (2009-10, Rochester, Rochester Hills, Mich.), Jordan Hasay (2008-09, Mission College Prep., San Luis Obispo, Calif.) and Chris Derrick (2007-08, Neuqua Valley, Naperville, Ill.).

The 5-foot-7 sophomore placed ninth at the national Foot Locker Cross Country Championships this past season with a time of 17:50, earning All-American honors. Connolly also finished fourth at the Foot Locker Northeast Regional championships and won the Division 1 state meet with a time of 18:27, breaking the tape 58 seconds ahead of her next-closest competitor. The Boston Globe Division 1 Runner of the Year, she was unbeaten against in-state competition this past fall.

One of 12 members of her school's Student Advisory Council, Connolly has volunteered locally as part of multiple fundraising campaigns to benefit cancer research and as a youth running coach. "Grace was an extremely impressive cross country runner this fall," said Chris Van Cott, head coach of Needham High. "I was particularly impressed with her ability and desire to compete against older, faster runners last year despite only being a freshman. Additionally, she's a model student-athlete."

Connolly has maintained an A-minus average in the classroom. She will begin her junior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Connolly joins Gatorade Massachusetts Girls Cross Country Runners of the Year Ariel Keklak (2015-16, Lincoln-Sudbury Regional High School), Erin Dietz (2014-15, Bedford High School), Anoush Shehadeh (2013-14, Phillips Academy), Catarina Rocha (2012-13 & 2011-12, Peabody High School), Ariel Beauregard-Breton (2010-11, Deerfield Academy), Andrea Keklak (2009-10, Lincoln-Sudbury Regional), and Emily Jones (2008-09 & 2007-08, The Bromfield School) as athletes who have won the cross country award since its inception in 2007.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Connolly will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants - one for each sport - will be announced throughout the year.
