BLUE VALLEY SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE KANSAS GIRLS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 19, 2017) — In its 32nd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Gracely Briley of Blue Valley Southwest High School as its 2016-17 Gatorade Kansas Girls Soccer Player of the Year. Briley is the first Gatorade Kansas Girls Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Blue Valley Southwest High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Briley as Kansas' best high school girls soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in June, Briley joins an elite alumni association of past state soccer award-winners, including Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook HS, Mich.), Steve Cherundolo (1996-97, Mt. Carmel HS, Calif.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02, 2002-03, East Brunswick HS, N.J.), Matt Besler (2004-04, Blue Valley West HS, Kans.), Jack Harrison (2013-14, Berkshire HS, Mass.), Mallory Pugh (2014-15, Mountain Vista HS, Colo.).

The 5-foot-7 sophomore midfielder led the Timberwolves to a 17-3-1 record and the Class 5A state championship this past season. Briley scored 19 goals and passed for 11 assists, including one tally in the team's 2-0 win over St. Thomas Aquinas in the state title game. The No. 114-rated recruit in the Class of 2019 TopDrawerSoccer.com she was a Class 5A Second Team All-State selection as a freshman.

Briley has volunteered locally as a youth soccer coach, and she has also donated her time creating and organizing a fundraising campaign to purchase mosquito nets for families in Africa. "Gracely controls the flow of play over the entire field," said K. Dean Snell, head coach of Blue Valley High School. "Her presence on both sides of the ball is a key factor to their success."

Briley has maintained a weighted 4.10 GPA in the classroom. She has made a verbal commitment to play soccer on scholarship at the University of Kansas beginning in the fall of 2019.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Briley joins recent Gatorade Kansas Girls Soccer Players of the Year Maycee Bell (2015-16, Trinity Academy), Parker Roberts (2014-15 & 2013-14, Blue Valley North High School), Haley Hanson (2012-13, Olathe East High School), Lexi Aiman (2011-12, Blue Valley West High School), Hannah Chadick (2010-11, Blue Valley Northwest High School), Ashley Catrell (2009-10, Blue Valley West High School), Jordan Jackson (2008-09 & 2007-08 Blue Valley West High School), and Geneva Magness (2006-07, St. Thomas Aquinas High School) among the state's list of former award winners.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Gracely will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants - one for each sport - will be announced throughout the year.
