WEST VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE ALASKA GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (January 29, 2018) — In its 33rd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Kendall Kramer of West Valley High School as its 2017-18 Gatorade Alaska Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year. Kramer is the first Gatorade Alaska Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year to be chosen from West Valley High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the racecourse, distinguishes Kramer as Alaska's best high school girls cross country runner. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Cross Country Runner of the Year award to be announced in January, Kramer joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Lukas Verzbicas (2010-11, 2009-10 Carl Sandburg, Orland Park, Ill.), Megan Goethals (2009-10, Rochester, Rochester Hills, Mich.), Jordan Hasay (2008-09, Mission College Prep., San Luis Obispo, Calif.) and Chris Derrick (2007-08, Neuqua Valley, Naperville, Ill.).

The 5-foot-3 sophomore raced to the Division 1 individual state championship this past season with a time of 18:07, leading the Wolfpack to the state title as a team. Kramer also won the Region VI championship and the Bartlett State Preview meet, while placing seventh at the George Fox Classic and ninth at the prestigious Mt. SAC Invitational.

Also a talented writer and artist, Kramer has volunteered locally on behalf of the Golden Heart Rotary Club. "Kendall is unusually disciplined and focused for her age," said West Valley coach Daniel Callahan. "She's a dedicated two-sport athlete who also competes in Nordic skiing and she trains at a high level all year round. She has the self-discipline and drive of a successful Division 1 collegiate athlete."

Kramer has maintained a 4.0 GPA in the classroom. She will begin her junior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Kramer joins Gatorade Alaska Girls Cross Country Runners of the Year Sadie Tuckwood (2016-17, Juneau-Douglas High School), Briahna Gerlach (2015-16, Glennallen High School), Allie Ostrander (2014-15, 2013-14, 2012-13 & 2011-12, Kenai Central High School), Jenette Northey (2010-11, Service High School), Kailey Wilson (2009-10, Kenny Lake School), and Leah Francis (2008-09 & 2007-08, Juneau-Douglas High School) as athletes who have won the cross country award since its inception in 2007.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Kramer will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants - one for each sport - will be announced throughout the year.
