ST. LAURENCE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE ILLINOIS BASEBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (May 29, 2018) — In its 33rd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Matt McCormick of St. Laurence High School as its 2017-18 Gatorade Illinois Baseball Player of the Year. McCormick is the first Gatorade Illinois Baseball Player of the Year to be chosen from St. Laurence High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes McCormick as Illinois' best high school baseball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Baseball Player of the Year, McCormick joins an elite alumni association of past state award-winners in 12 sports, including Derek Jeter (1991-92, Kalamazoo High School, Mich.), Jon Lester (2001-02, Bellarmine Preparatory School, Wash.), David Price (2003-04, Blackman High School, Tenn.), Clayton Kershaw (2005-06, Highland Park High School, Texas), Rick Porcello (2006-2007, Seaton Hall Preparatory School, N.J.) and Kris Bryant (2009-10, Bonanza High School, Nev.).

The 6-foot-1, 195-pound junior catcher had led the Vikings to a 28-7 record entering the postseason. McCormick produced a .522 batting average with 17 doubles, nine home runs, 48 RBI and an on-base percentage of .662 through 35 games. A First Team All-State honoree, he's also a two-time Chicago Tribune All-Area selection and was named a Rawlings/Perfect Game Second Team Underclass All-American.

McCormick has volunteered locally as a youth mentor and has raised funds to benefit pediatric cancer patients. "Matt McCormick is probably the best pure hitter that I've ever seen in high school baseball," said John McCarthy, head coach at Brother Rice High School. "He changes games for the opponent. He also plays solid defense behind the plate."

McCormick has maintained a B average in the classroom. He will begin his senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

McCormick joins recent Gatorade Illinois Baseball Players of the Year Alek Thomas (2016-17, Mount Carmel High School), Tyler Fitzgerald (2015-16, Rochester High School), Charlie Donovan (2014-15, Westmont High School), Evan Skoug (2013-14, Libertyville High School), Ryne Roper (2012-13, Harrisburg High School), Kyle Funkhouser (2011-12, Oak Forest High School), Charlie Tilson (2010-11, New Trier Township High School), Jake DePew (2009-10, Granite City High School), Kevin Koziol (2008-09, Brother Rice High School), Jake Odorizzi (2007-08, Highland High School), and Jake Smolinski (2006-07, Boylan Catholic) among the state's list of former award winners.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Matt will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants - one for each sport - will be announced throughout the year.
