LARAMIE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE WYOMING GIRLS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 18, 2018) — In its 33rd year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company, today announced Lexi Pulley of Laramie High School as its 2017-18 Gatorade Wyoming Girls Soccer Player of the Year. Pulley is the third Gatorade Wyoming Girls Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Laramie High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Pulley as Wyoming's best high school girls soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in June, Pulley joins an elite alumni association of past state soccer award-winners, including Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook HS, Mich.), Steve Cherundolo (1996-97, Mt. Carmel HS, Calif.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy, N.Y.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02, 2002-03, East Brunswick HS, N.J.), Matt Besler (2004-05, Blue Valley West HS, Kans.), Jack Harrison (2013-14, Berkshire HS, Mass.), and Mallory Pugh (2014-15, Mountain Vista HS, Colo.).

The 5-foot-4 senior midfielder and forward scored 23 goals and passed for 19 assists this past season, leading the Plainsmen (11-7-1) to third place at the Class 4A state tournament. The state's returning Gatorade Girls Soccer Player of the Year, Pulley is a four-time First Team All-State and All-Conference selection.

Also a basketball and volleyball standout, Pulley has volunteered locally on behalf of the Special Olympics and youth sports programs. "Lexi Pulley is dangerous from all over the field," said Carl Matson, head coach at Campbell County High. "She's very technical, a great distributor, and she makes everyone else better."

Pulley has maintained a 3.95 GPA in the classroom. She has signed a National Letter of Intent to play soccer on scholarship at the University of Northern Colorado this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Pulley joins Gatorade Wyoming Girls Soccer Players of the Year Robbi Ryan (2015-16, Sheridan High School), Abby Morillon (2014-15, Cheyenne East High School), Rachel Erickson (2013-14 & 2012-13, Cheyenne East High School), Marcia Ashdown (2011-12, Riverton High School), Sheree Small (2010-11, Campbell County High School), Makenzie Meade (2009-10, Laramie), Ariela Schreibeis (2008-09 & 2007-08, Laramie), and Crystal Umphlett (2006-07, Cody) among the state's list of former award winners.

As a Gatorade Player of the Year, Pulley will be able to select a national or local youth sports organization to receive a grant as part of the Gatorade Play It Forward program. Every Gatorade Player of the Year state winner receives a $1,000 grant to donate and will have the opportunity to enter for an additional $10,000 spotlight grant by writing a brief essay explaining why their selected organization deserves additional support. 12 spotlight grants – one for each sport – will be announced throughout the year.
