

DEL ORO HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED
GATORADE CALIFORNIA GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (April 8, 2021) — In its 36th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company today announced Riley Chamberlain of Del Oro High School as its 2020-21 Gatorade California Girls Cross Country Player of the Year. Chamberlain is the first Gatorade California Girls Cross Country Player of the Year to be chosen from Del Oro High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Chamberlain as California's best high school girls cross country player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Cross Country Player of the Year award to be announced in April, Chamberlain joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Lukas Verzbicas (2010-11, 2009-10, Carl Sandburg High School, Orland Park, Ill.), Megan Goethals (2009-10, Rochester High School, Rochester Hills, Mich.), Jordan Hasay (2008-09, Mission College Preparatory Catholic High School, San Luis Obispo, Calif.) and Chris Derrick (2007-08, Neuqua Valley High School, Naperville, Ill.).

The 5-foot-10 junior finished eighth at the AAU National Championships this past season—fourth in the 15-16 age group—with a time of 17:22.43. A two-time Division 3 state champion, Chamberlain also won the Sierra Foothills League championship in a course-record time.

Chamberlain has volunteered locally on behalf of multiple community service initiatives with her church youth group and provides regular assistance to an elderly neighbor. "Riley has a commitment and dedication that few will ever understand," said Del Oro coach Dustin Fee. "Even in a year that shut everything down, she still stayed focused on what her goal was."

Chamberlain has maintained a 3.53 GPA in the classroom. She will begin her senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Chamberlain joins recent Gatorade California Girls Cross Country Players of the Year Carlie Dorostkar (2019-20, Canyon Crest Academy), Kristin Fahy (2018-19, La Costa Canyon High School) and Claudia Lane (2017-18 & 2016-17, Malibu High School), among the state's list of former award winners.

Through Gatorade's cause marketing platform "Play it Forward," Chamberlain has the opportunity to award a $1,000 grant to a local or national youth sports organization of their choosing. Chamberlain is also eligible to submit a 30-second video explaining why the organization they chose is deserving of one of twelve $10,000 spotlight grants, which will be announced throughout the year. To date, Gatorade Player of the Year winners' grants have totaled more than $2.7 million across 1,117 organizations.

Since the program's inception in 1985, Gatorade Player of the Year award recipients have won hundreds of professional and college championships, and many have also turned into pillars in their communities, becoming coaches, business owners and educators.
