

ANGOLA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED
GATORADE INDIANA BOYS CROSS COUNTRY PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (April 15, 2021) — In its 36th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company today announced Izaiah Steury of Angola High School as its 2020-21 Gatorade Indiana Boys Cross Country Player of the Year. Steury is the first Gatorade Indiana Boys Cross Country Player of the Year to be chosen from Angola High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Steury as Indiana's best high school boys cross country player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Cross Country Player of the Year award to be announced in April, Steury joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Lukas Verzbicas (2010-11, 2009-10, Carl Sandburg High School, Orland Park, Ill.), Megan Goethals (2009-10, Rochester High School, Rochester Hills, Mich.), Jordan Hasay (2008-09, Mission College Preparatory Catholic High School, San Luis Obispo, Calif.) and Chris Derrick (2007-08, Neuqua Valley High School, Naperville, Ill.).

The 5-foot-9, 135-pound junior raced to the individual state championship this past season with a time of 15:23.7. Steury also won the semi-state, sectional and regional championships, and took first at the New Prairie Invitational, the Marion Invitational and the Huntington North Invitational. He also finished 17th at the RunningLane National Championships.

Steury has volunteered locally on behalf of food donation drives, and has assisted the elderly as part of his church youth group. "Izaiah finished seventh at the state meet as sophomore and decided the next day that he wanted to be a state champion, and he committed to putting in the work necessary," said Angola coach Brad Peterson. "He has a focus and determination unlike anyone I've ever seen."

Steury has maintained a 4.0 GPA in the classroom. He will begin his senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which works with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Steury joins recent Gatorade Indiana Boys Cross Country Players of the Year Gabriel Sanchez (2019-20, Lowell High School), Cole Hocker (2018-19, Cathedral High School), Matthew Schadler (2017-18, Reitz Memorial High School), and Curtis Eckstein (2016-17, Oldenburg Academy), among the state's list of former award winners.

Through Gatorade's cause marketing platform "Play it Forward," Steury has the opportunity to award a $1,000 grant to a local or national youth sports organization of their choosing. Steury is also eligible to submit a 30-second video explaining why the organization they chose is deserving of one of twelve $10,000 spotlight grants, which will be announced throughout the year. To date, Gatorade Player of the Year winners' grants have totaled more than $2.7 million across 1,117 organizations.

Since the program's inception in 1985, Gatorade Player of the Year award recipients have won hundreds of professional and college championships, and many have also turned into pillars in their communities, becoming coaches, business owners and educators.
