

ANKENY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED
GATORADE IOWA BOYS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June 16, 2022) — In its 37th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, Gatorade today announced Lucas Newhard of Ankeny High School is the 2021-22 Gatorade Iowa Boys Soccer Player of the Year. Newhard is the first Gatorade Iowa Boys Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Ankeny High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Newhard as Iowa's best high school boys soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in June, Newhard joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook High School, Mich.), Steve Cherundolo (1996-97, Mt. Carmel High School, Calif.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy School of Young Women, N.Y.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02 & 2002-03, East Brunswick High School, N.J.), Matt Besler (2004-05, Blue Valley West High School, Kans.), Jack Harrison (2013-14, Berkshire High School, Mass.) and Mallory Pugh (2014-15, Mountain Vista High School, Colo.).

The 5-foot-9, 150-pound senior forward scored 36 goals and passed for nine assists this past season, leading the Hawks (19-2) to the Class 3A state quarterfinals. Newhard recorded 13 multi-goal games, including three hat tricks. He set Ankeny's single-season scoring record in his only season of high school soccer.

Newhard has volunteered locally doing yard work for the elderly, and he has donated his time as a youth soccer coach. "Lucas Newhard was an absolute terror on the field this year," said Brian Duax, head coach of Ankeny Centennial High School. "I had a complete game plan for him that worked except for two moments. And he scored both times."

Newhard, who is home-schooled, has maintained a 3.33 GPA in the classroom. He has signed a National Letter of Intent to play soccer on scholarship at Grand View University this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which leverages experts including coaches, scouts, media and others as sources to help evaluate and determine the state winners in each sport.

Newhard joins recent Gatorade Iowa Boys Soccer Players of the Year CJ Coppola (2020-21, Waukee High School), Alan Kim (2019-20, Kennedy High School), Roderick Orellana-Lemus (2018-19, Lincoln High School), and Jordy Triana-Vasquez (2017-18, Valley High School), among the state's list of former award winners.

Gatorade has a long-standing history of serving athlete communities and understands how sports instill valuable lifelong skills on and off the field. Through Gatorade's "Play it Forward" platform, Newhard has the opportunity to award a $1,000 grant to a local or national organization of their choosing that helps young athletes realize the benefits of playing sports. Newhard is also eligible to submit a short video explaining why the organization they chose is deserving of one of twelve $10,000 spotlight grants, which will be announced throughout the year. To date, Gatorade Player of the Year winners' grants have totaled more than $3.5 million across more than 1,300 organizations.

Since the program's inception in 1985, Gatorade Player of the Year award recipients have won hundreds of professional and college championships, and many have also turned into pillars in their communities, becoming coaches, business owners and educators.
