

BETTENDORF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-ATHLETE NAMED GATORADE IOWA GIRLS SOCCER PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICAGO (June, 23, 2022) — In its 37th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, Gatorade today announced Avery Horner of Bettendorf High School is the 2021-22 Gatorade Iowa Girls Soccer Player of the Year. Horner is the second Gatorade Iowa Girls Soccer Player of the Year to be chosen from Bettendorf High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Horner as Iowa's best high school girls soccer player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Soccer Player of the Year award to be announced in June, Horner joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Alexi Lalas (1987-88, Cranbrook High School, Mich.), Steve Cherundolo (1996-97, Mt. Carmel High School, Calif.), Abby Wambach (1997-98, Our Lady of Mercy School of Young Women, N.Y.), Heather O'Reilly (2001-02 & 2002-03, East Brunswick High School, N.J.), Matt Besler (2004-05, Blue Valley West High School, Kans.), Jack Harrison (2013-14, Berkshire High School, Mass.) and Mallory Pugh (2014-15, Mountain Vista High School, Colo.).

The 5-foot-6 senior forward scored 27 goals and passed for 21 assists this past season, leading the Bulldogs (12-5) to the regional finals. Horner is a two-time First Team All-State honoree and was a member of the U.S. Olympic Development Program national team. She concluded her prep career with 75 goals and 49 assists.

Horner has volunteered locally on behalf of a Vacation Bible School and youth soccer programs. "It's very rare to run into a player like Avery Horner at the high school level," said Edgar Arceo, head coach at Muscatine High School. "She's not big physically, but her skills make up for that. She's quick on the ball, fast off the ball and she fears no defender."

Horner has maintained a 3.67 GPA in the classroom. She has signed a National Letter of Intent to play soccer on scholarship at Iowa State University this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which leverages experts including coaches, scouts, media and others as sources to help evaluate and determine the state winners in each sport.

Horner joins recent Gatorade Iowa Girls Soccer Players of the Year Kenzie Roling (2020-21, Waverly-Shell Rock High School), Abigail Santana (2019-20 & 2018-19, Linn-Mar High School), and Melina Hegelheimer (2017-18, Ames High School), among the state's list of former award winners.

Gatorade has a long-standing history of serving athlete communities and understands how sports instill valuable lifelong skills on and off the field. Through Gatorade's "Play it Forward" platform, Horner has the opportunity to award a $1,000 grant to a local or national organization of their choosing that helps young athletes realize the benefits of playing sports. Horner is also eligible to submit a short video explaining why the organization they chose is deserving of one of twelve $10,000 spotlight grants, which will be announced throughout the year. To date, Gatorade Player of the Year winners' grants have totaled more than $3.5 million across more than 1,300 organizations.

Since the program's inception in 1985, Gatorade Player of the Year award recipients have won hundreds of professional and college championships, and many have also turned into pillars in their communities, becoming coaches, business owners and educators.
